REMNANT DAY

Friday Special Sale Men's Pajamas and Night Shirts.

The entire sample line of the best known and most reliable maker, whose goods are confined solely to us in Washington, has been purchased at a great price concession, and will be sold at much less than real value. The principal reason for the low prices is that a lot of the garments were mussed in handling and packing, here and there a spot of oil, probably a stitch dropped or disconnected; some few of the pajamas mismatched. The imperfections, however, are very trivial.
